Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group

1. Claims 70-86, drawn to a method for selecting one of a plurality of data processing paths with assigning power consumption characterizing variable to data handling elements and selecting path based on evaluation.
2. Claims 87-94, drawn to a method for operating a multidimensional field of reconfigurable elements during runtime for processing of predetermined tasks with task processing, determining element group systems in for processing the task; selecting a particular one of the plurality of suitable element group systems to process the task; and configuring the selected element group system into the field.
3. Claims 95-101, drawn to multidimensional processor field with data processing cells one of arranged and situated in proximity, cell i/o, logic unit gating and data processing cells have an aspect ratio of at least 2:1.
4. Claims 102-107, 113-115, drawn to a data processing system/method with configuration maintenance memory and non-volatile configuration maintenance memory.
5. Claims 108-112, drawn to a configuration maintenance memory for maintaining multiple fixedly preselected nonvolatile configurations.
6. Claims 116-118, drawn to a reconfigurable signal processing device with linkable, functional varied signal processing circuits, request and accept functions, and analog signal processing circuits.
7. Claim 119 drawn to a data processing device with a data processing logic cell field; at least one sequential CPU sequential CPU and the coupling being for a data exchange in a blockwise form.
8. Claims 120-137, drawn to a method for dynamic bus setup of a connection between a sending unit and a receiving unit over paths wherein each path traversing a plurality of intermittent units, assigning a corresponding code number; and for each one of a plurality of surrounding units assigned a code number
9. Claims 138 drawn to a multidimensional field of reconfigurable elements buses configured for dynamic set up, busses partition; units partition, address one of directly and indirectly a neighbor group of cells that is arranged in a bus segment other than a segment in which the each unit is arranged, store a bus unit number and a request signal direction; for units in a temporary connection that are needed for a bus setup, after a determination of a lack of need for the units in the temporary connection, permit, through release, a break up of the temporary connection.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

(a) The prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to Another invention;

(b) The inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their Different classification;

(c) The inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their Recognized divergent subject matter;

(d) The inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching Different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);

(e) The inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that cancellation of non-elected claims is required.
